Twenty-Sixth Annual Session

of the

High Point Educational and Missionary Baptist Association

Held with the

Trinity, N. C.,

July 28 to August 1st, 1915.

The next Session of the Association is to be held with Mt. Pisgah Baptist Church, Burlington, N. C., Wednesday before the first Sunday in August, 1916.

R. E. CATUS, Recording Secretary.

MODERATOR'S ADDRESS.

To the members and visitors of the High Point Educational Missionary Baptist Association, I am very thankful to God that I am permitted to be here today, and in His name make this my third annual address and report as Moderator of this Grand Eclesiastical body.

Many have been the joys and sorrows since we met in our last meeting at Greensboro. We can hardly realize that the wheel of time revolves so rapidly. Yes, but twelve months have past and we find ourselves face to face again, and all of us ought to be thankful to Him who has preserved our lives during the past year.

I am glad to have this privilege of speaking to a class of people that stands second to no other class of men—because they believe in Jesus Christ, whose influence abides for-ever.

We congratulate the Association upon having such a sober, truthful and respectful body of christians to constitute its organization, and we want our religious intercourse with this vicinity during these few days here tender to cement the hearts of this people to the Association. I have watched our ministers carefully and noticed the delegates during these three years with special interest and I have found them to be all that we could expect of them.

This Association was never in a more prosperous condition at any time in its history than now as is shown by the reports at our last session. Let us therefore, maintain our excellent record which has been achieved by the faithfulness of our loyal co-workers through toil of many years.

At East Market Street church in Greensboro last year our report showed new churches, and ministers being added. This is encouraging and we, every one of us ought to breathe a prayer of gratefulness to our benign Heavenly Father for the awakening spirit among our churches.

Let us congratulate ourselves for the good we have done, and persevere in God's way until we stand in the front rank among our sister Associations in the State as a progressive and constructive body of christian men and women.

There are substantial reasons for believing that our adjacent associations are regarding us with a much larger degree of complacency and respect than they were wont to do in years gone by. We are solving the problem of "Eclesiastical Efficiency" in which the most important factors are the mental, physical and moral fibre of its leaders.

I have not done all I intended to do during the year as the weather was very bad during winter so church work was hindered in many places, but I have tried to keep in touch with the various churches, Pastors, Missionaries and organizers over the field and render what help I could in a feeble way. I have not traveled much over the field but I have kept up extensive correspondence in order to find out the conditions that existed among us. My official visits were so few it is hardly necessary to refer to them here—but the few places that I had a chance to visit, time and space forbid me to tell you of the magnanimity with which I was received, and the cordiality that greeted me every where. I am always glad when I can make the sacrifice and make a tour, for the life it infuses. I shall be glad to visit every church belonging to us in the near future.

God has indeed been with us all of the way, and has helped us mightily, over the field during the past year, as many good revivals were conducted with telling results which is an evidence that we are progressing.

I was called upon by the little Mission Point in East End Thomasville, to organize that church there, known in our Minutes as Immanuel, it was known that this church had never been properly organized. So for the good of the cause we assembled June 9th, 1915, and organized it properly, with the assistance of Rev. R. E. Catus and Rev. S. S. Welborn; at which time Rev. Welborn was selected for their pastor.

Learning that Calvary church, at High Point, was contemplating a return to us, I took the liberty to make a visit there to assure them they would be welcome to return as they had been fooled away. I am informed by Rev. H. C. Hairston their recently elect and most efficient pastor that they are here to represent with us again at this session.

The Educational Work.

Among us as Baptist is neglected as whole and individually. We shall not urge upon you any special school, nor at this time recommend the undertaking of establishing a school, but I do ask that the ministers encourage education every where. We have schools of our denomination and to them our boys and girls ought to go when they leave the public schools, so they can be trained in religious nurture. Our church can not meet the demand of religious training in the church alone. Other denominations make special efforts to have the children of their members trained in their schools; and if we keep the standard and advancement made thus far by us in religious pedagogy we must not be slack along these lines. Let us help to educate our people.

Oct. 3rd, 1914, a Council composed of Rev. J. B. Ellis, Rev. G. H. E. Washington and I assembled at Mt. Pisgah, at the call of the church to examine Rev. Wm. Wilson for ordination, after a careful examination, we ordained him according to the laws and practice of our Church. And we predict a bright future in that territory for this young man.

Our Missionaries

need the co-operation of the pastors. It is impossible for them to succeed without our help. Allow me to suggest that when the Missionary of either the Association or the Convention is getting around encourage the work at least by making the announcement interesting.

Our Union Meeting

has been neglected during the past year, so I recommend, that we take it under consideration and see if we can not do some thing to build it up.

Our Sunday School Convention

is making progress according to the last session, and I am doing about what I can to assist the officers of it to succeed in getting delegates from every Sunday School in our Association.

The Women and Their Work.

Woman is the natural born worker and when it comes to work whether it be private or public, she is in her sphere. Yet when men and women work together, most is accomplished—whether it be in the home or in the church.

Woman instinctively feels the call to better conditions, not only for her church but for all the churches. The more interested woman becomes in making her church better the more the church will prosper and grow both spiritually and financially.

I want it said of the women in our Associational bounds that they are alive on the subject of betterment work. I want them awakened to the common needs and to the natural rights that have been kept asleep. We want the sisters quickened to their responsibility that rest upon them. With the Auxiliary organized in every church, we predict that woman's part in the betterment work has just begun in our Association. I further believe that through woman's activities through her various organizations that the Association will receive its greatest impetus in the next few years.

One of the best and most representative meetings of Baptist women was that one held at East Market St. Baptist Church, Greensboro, beginning Friday before the 1st, Sunday in July. It was the Auxiliary of this our own Association—they assembled there in their Second Annual Session; and I am glad to say it brought together some of our best women workers, those who are active in the work of the denomination in our midst. A few of our Pastors turned out and rendered needed help and an expression of their interest in this much needed organization. The women were at their best and the great audience heard with delight their strong appeals and helpful addresses.

It was indeed a mountain, I am pleased to say to the credit of both ministers, members and friends that as your Moderator I have been shown all the respect due, and the treatment given me by them has been all that it could be, and my prayers will be made for them to God that they may prove themselves continually before the world as servants of the Most High Being, with love for all, with firmness in the right, with fond hope and fervent prayer for our continued success for years to come bid you God's speed in your labors to better the condition of humanity, the race and the curch.

Let your daily prayer be:

To grow a little wiser,
To train my body and mind to obey,
To keep my inner life both keen and strong,
To shut the door on hate, scorn and pride,
To open, then, to love the windows wide,

To meet with cheerful heart what comes to me,
To turn life's discord in to harmony,
To point some straying comrades to the road.

This prayer make from the heart until God answers, and you find it is His holy will.

Yours in the cause,

J. E. Boykin.

Books for Varied Tastes

MISSIONARY BIOGRAPHY

THE IMMORTAL SEVEN

By Rev. James L. Hill, D. D. A well-written, captivating account in the form of sketches of Adoniram and Mrs. Judson, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Newell, Luther Rice, Gordon Hall, and Samuel Nott —"The Immortal Seven" who were the first foreign missionaries who sailed from North America one hundred years ago. In this book of 150 pages the author has presented a mass of material in sketches of these early missionaries which is sure to prove absorbingly interesting. Cloth, 50 cents net; postage extra.

SOCIAL SERVICE

BROTHERING THE BOY

An appeal for person, not proxy, in Social Service

By W. Edward Raffety, Ph. D. Out of knowledge and sympathy Professor Raffety interprets the genius of brothering. He has read books, but he has also read boys; therefore he could write these pages. Equipment of the brother; growing the normal boy; meeting the needs of the other boy; agencies and instruments through which brotherliness finds expression and helps itself to achievement—these are the chief topics of this manual. Without aiming at literary excellence the author has studied both the theme and the way to say it. Price, 75 cents net.

RELIGIOUS HUMOR

HOGAN AND HOGAN

Theology in Overalls

Unique, instructive, inspiring, humorous, pathetic, clean, bright

By Charles A. McAlpine. "Here is a book full of the keenest wit and the shrewdest observations on many problems of pressing importance in our day. One would have to travel far to find an equal amount of solid good sense dispensed in observations and discussions of such rare wit that the reader is soon transformed into 'laughter, holding both his sides.' And there are tender parts too, which move the heart deeply. We advise those who need cheer to get this book rather than call the doctor."—The Christian Intelligencer. Price, $1.00 net.

FICTION

THE COMRADE OF NAVARRE

The Great "Universal Peace" Novel

By Harriet Malone Hobson, author of "Jinks' Inside" and "Sis Within." A book with a purpose. As if seeking only to entertain, the story tells itself with utmost naturalness, and you are unaware what powerful streams are lifting you, till, borne on by the tides of indignation that move to battle in a righteous cause, you are caught and carried in the tremendous flood of revulsion from the horrors and shames of war as illustrated in fearful scenes of the period of the French Reformation, when religion, politics, greed, and ambition mingled motives that made possible the massacre of Saint Bartholomew and the battles in which flamed the helmet of Navarre. Price, $1.25 net.

STORIES FOR CHILDREN

WORLD STORIES RETOLD

By William James Sly, Ph. D. Fables told when Greece was young, and the life histories of men and women still busy in the workshops of the twentieth-century world, stories from the Bible, fairy tales, and tales of heroism in war and peace—nearly two hundred of the best stories which storytellers like to tell and children like to hear, have been assembled in groups according to their nature and brought together in this single volume. An alphabetical index, an index denoting the ethical suggestiveness of each story, and an introductory section on the art of story-telling increase the usefulness of the collection. Just the book for the parent, the preacher, the teacher—for anyone to whom a child turns with the plea, "Tell me a story." Price, $1.00 net.
